9. Request for Records

- 9.1. A request for records in terms of PAIA must be made formally by way of e-mail or registered mail and in the prescribed format (refer to Form C of this document).
- 9.2. Requests for records must be directed to the Information Officer who shall consider the request and provide a decision within 30 (thirty) days of having received the request or having received the prescribed particulars in terms of section 53(2) of PAIA.
- 9.3. A request for information may be refused by the Safety SA Group if it does not comply with PAIA or if the Safety SA Group believes that there is a valid ground for objection in terms of PAIA.
- 9.4. The person requesting the information must provide the Safety SA Group with sufficient information for the Information Officer to identify the record and the person requesting the record.
- 9.5. The person requesting information must indicate the type of access required and his/her contact details including e-mail address, and postal address.
- 9.6. Should the requesting person prefer a certain means of communication, such means of communication must be included in the request for information.
- 9.7. Should a request for records be made on behalf of a third party, authority to do so must be provided to the Information Officer.

10. Granting of Request for Information

- 10.1. Should a request be granted, the Safety SA Group shall provide the requesting person with the following information:
 - 10.2. the access fee payable by the requesting person;
 - 10.3. the type of access which will be granted; and
 - 10.4. notice that the requesting person may approach a competent court to dispute the access fee or the type of access to be granted.
- 10.5. Once a request has been granted, the records shall be made available to the requesting person once the relevant fee has been paid.

11. Denial of Request for Information

- 11.1. A request for access to information may be refused in the following circumstances:
 - 11.2. protecting Personal Information that the Safety SA Group holds regarding a third party from unreasonable disclosure;
 - 11.3. protecting commercial information that the Safety SA Group holds regarding a third party which may harm the commercial or financial interests of such third party;
 - 11.4. if the disclosure would result in a breach of a duty of confidence owed to a third party;
 - 11.5. if the disclosure would jeopardise the safety or life of natural person;
 - 11.6. if disclosure would prejudice or impair the security of property or means of transport of a person;
 - 11.7. if disclosure would prejudice or impair the protection of a person who is subject to a witness protection scheme;
 - 11.8. if disclosure would prejudice or impair the protection of the safety of the public;
 - 11.9. the record is privileged from production in legal proceedings unless privilege in relation to such record has been waived;
 - 11.10. if the record is a computer programme;
 - 11.11. disclosure of the record will put the Safety SA Group at a disadvantage in contractual or other negotiations or prejudice the Safety SA Group in commercial competition;
 - 11.12. disclosure of the record would harm the commercial or financial interests of the Safety SA Group; and

Manual	Revision Number:	Date	Responsible Department	Page
PAIA Manual	V3	2024/07/31	Compliance Department	8 of 13

- 11.13. records containing information about research being carried out or about to be carried out on behalf of a third party or a company which is related to the Safety SA Group, and which have not been made public by the Safety SA Group.
- 11.14. Should a request be refused, the Safety SA Group shall provide the requesting person with the following information –
 - 11.14.1. adequate reasons for the refusal including the relevant sections of PAIA; and
 - 11.14.2. notice that the requesting person may lodge an application with a competent court against the refusal and against the procedure including the period for lodging the application.

12. Fees

- 12.1. A non-refundable request fee is payable to the Safety SA Group upon the submission of the request.
- 12.2. A requesting party who has made a request for access to records and such request has been granted must pay an access fee to the Safety SA Group for the search and preparation of the records and any time reasonably required which exceeds the prescribed hours for searching and preparation arrangements.
- 12.3. The prescribed forms and fees are available on the website of the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development.

13. Request for Records Containing Third Party Information

- 13.1. Should records be requested that contain information pertaining to a third party, the
- 13.2. Group is obliged to attempt to contact the third party to inform it of the request and to provide it with the opportunity to respond to the request by consenting or providing reasons why the access should be refused.
- 13.3. Should the third party provide reasons for the support of or against providing access, the Information Officer will consider such reasons in determining whether access should be granted.
- 13.4. The requesting party may appeal the decision of the Information Officer to a competent court in the Republic of South Africa in accordance with PAIA.

14. Records that cannot be found or do not exist

- 14.1. Should all reasonable steps be taken by the Safety SA Group to find a requested record and there are reasonable grounds to believe that the record:
 - 14.2. is in the Safety SA Group's possession but cannot be found; or
 - 14.3. does not exist,
 - 14.4. then the Information Officer shall notify the requesting party that it is not possible to provide the requesting party access to such record.

15. Records of Safety SA Group Which are Available in Accordance with any Other Legislation

- 15.1. The Safety SA Group is required to hold records in terms of the following Acts:

16. Why do we Collect and Process Personal Information?

- 16.1. Our reason for collecting your personal information depends on the activity at hand. Our intention for collecting personal information, including but not limited to:
 - 16.1.1. Contests, Email Newsletters and Inquiry Information to allow us to be in contact with you in relation to your inquiry or your participation in Safety SA's email newsletters or the contests, to personalise our services for you, notify you of special offers or promotions that we believe may be of interest to you and send our newsletters or to provide you with customer service, and to monitor our provision of customer service. In some cases, we may use some of your Personal Data for external communications purposes, for example, by making a press release about a contest winner.
 - 16.1.2. Website Information to monitor and administer the contests you may enter and your inquiries, to analyse trends, usage and activities with users on our website, to ensure its technological compatibility, to help us create websites that best suit our users' interests and preferences and to help identify products and services, site features, advertisements, and offers that may be of particular interest to you (for example, as part of an extended market research). We also use website information to monitor and control the security of our website and prevent cyber security incidents, as well as to collect feedback on the website usage, provide IT support to online visitors and gauge success of our marketing initiatives.
 - 16.1.3. Portal Subscriber Information to administer the specific relationship, fulfil contractual obligations, deal with quality issues, assist with business planning and development, assist suppliers or other portal subscribers to achieve goals, and administer incentive programmes. In certain limited cases, we also use Personal Data to facilitate billing and invoicing or for the purpose of product traceability or compliance with regulatory requirements or contractual requirements.
 - 16.1.4. Passwords and Password Aide-memoire Questions and Answers to register yourself online in a secure way and help you register if you forget your password. We request that you choose a password that is unique to every account and that you do not use sensitive information or financial information as an aide-memoire (for example, your bank account credentials).
 - 16.1.5. CCTV Footage to maintain a safe and secure environment for our people, visitors, products, services, and processes; where applicable.
 - 16.1.6. Information Collected on Social Media Accounts to contact you via your social media accounts, to answer your inquiries and better engage with our customers.
 - 16.1.7. Research & Development and Market Research Information to perform market research, improve

- our products and services, for R&D purposes, and for the study and understanding of the business and preferences of consumers or operators.
- 16.1.8. Visitor Information to comply with building safety obligations, to identify the people that are entering our premises and for health reasons.
 - 16.1.9. Photos and Videos and Related Content to communicate about our events, meetings, conferences, products, partnerships and other relationships, on our websites, via our social media accounts, via press releases, and other corporate communications and marketing materials. In some cases, we may ask you to provide us with your email address to send you the pictures and videos, we may collect your professional details to contact you back about our products and services, or, if you are a government official, we may collect and use data revealing your political opinions, to facilitate corporate communications, corporate affairs, recruitment and engagement of individuals, and for public affairs purposes.
 - 16.1.10. CV/Resumes and Relevant Information for Recruitment to enable us to recruit the right people.
 - 16.1.11. Information relating to Sourcing and Procurement to set up the contractual terms with our suppliers, to pay for our suppliers' products or services, to perform recalls and to call warranties, to comply with accounting obligations applicable to us, to conduct demand planning and generally to facilitate the relationship with our suppliers.
 - 16.1.12. Information relating to Individual Consumers of our products and services to, if and to the extent permitted by applicable law, provide individual consumers of our products and services with marketing communications promoting our products and services (or those of third parties), to better understand our consumers' needs, to address complaints on our products and services, and more generally to improve our relationships with individual consumers.
 - 16.1.13. User-generated Content received through our Online Presence to better engage with our customers or individual consumers of our products, to interact with our customers, and to address complaints.
 - 16.1.14. Information about Inventors to apply for or assign patents or similar registered intellectual property rights for the benefit of Safety SA.
 - 16.1.15. Information to Protect against Serious Threats to Health to allow us to protect you and other individuals, such as customers or contractors, and to help contain the threat in the public interest.
 - 16.1.16. ID and Passport Information to help us prevent unauthorised individuals from accessing, changing or deleting your Personal Data.
 - 16.1.17. Internal Administrative Purposes to allow us to administer the business, including for purposes of audit, data analysis, sustainable cost advantage, compliance, governance and legal, corporate social responsibility (CSR), security, accounts payable and receivable validation, and database records.
 - 16.1.18. Combined Information, if and to the extent permitted by applicable law, to better understand your needs and interests. We may combine the Personal Data that you have provided to us with other information we have collected about you, whether online or offline, or with data obtained from other sources (such as our third-party advertising partners). This way we can provide you with the most optimal customer experience and serve you advertisements or otherwise interact with you in ways that are specifically tailored to your interests and preferences. For example, if and to the extent permitted by applicable law: we may share a cryptographic hash of your email address with a third-party advertising partner, such as social networking sites where you are a registered user (by using the hashing process, your email address is not disclosed to the third party). If the hashed email address from us matches a hashed email address that the third party advertising partner has, the third party identifies you as part of a group of individuals to whom our ads might be served on its website or on other media; and a third party advertising partner may provide us with certain aggregate demographic information about the demographic group to which you belong, which is obtained from your profile and materials with the third party advertising partner.

- 16.1.19. De-identified/Anonymised Information to identify trends, manage our business, develop statistical information, understand how we are performing, or develop relevant products, services or offers derived from combining Personal Data with other information, as explained above.
- 16.2. Depending on the circumstances, we may also use your Personal Data for the following purposes:
 - 16.2.1. For corporate communications purposes and for public affairs purposes (including, if necessary, to issue a public response to specific complaints)
 - 16.2.2. To respond to your comments and questions (problem resolution)
 - 16.2.3. To provide customer service (for example, product recalls, tracking, and responding to product quality concerns)
 - 16.2.4. To conduct sales and market research (for example, through surveys)
 - 16.2.5. To conduct research and development (for example, through product concept correspondence)
 - 16.2.6. To register yourself when we organise events
 - 16.2.7. If and to the extent permitted by applicable law, for direct marketing purposes
 - 16.2.8. To improve business relations
 - 16.2.9. For public affairs purposes
 - 16.2.10. To protect against and prevent fraud, or other criminal activities, unauthorized transactions, claims and other liabilities, and to manage risk exposure
 - 16.2.11. To handle legal disputes
 - 16.2.12. To conduct corporate transactions (including mergers, acquisitions, and divestments); and
 - 16.2.13. To improve and enhance our products and services, in general.
- 16.3. We will not use Personal Data for any purposes that are incompatible with those outlined in this Policy, unless you give us your free and informed consent for additional specific purposes.

18. Transborder – Flow of Information

18.1. In compliance with PAIA Section 51(c)(iv), we inform you that our operations involve planned transborder flows of information within a secure Microsoft environment. This means that personal information may be transferred across international borders using Microsoft's cloud services and infrastructure. Microsoft ensures robust data protection and privacy measures, including compliance with international standards and regulations, to safeguard your information throughout these transborder data flows.

19. Security Measures

- 19.1. Safety SA Group have implemented a comprehensive set of security measures to protect personal information. These measures include, but are not limited to:
- 19.1.1. Encryption of data during storage and transmission.
 - 19.1.2. Strict access controls to ensure only authorised personnel can access sensitive information.
 - 19.1.3. Security audits to identify and address potential vulnerabilities.
 - 19.1.4. Ongoing employee training programs to ensure awareness and adherence to data protection protocols.
- 19.2. These measures are designed to prevent: (a) Loss of, damage to, or unauthorised destruction of personal information. (b) Unlawful access to or processing of personal information.
- 19.3. By detailing these measures, Safety SA Group aim to fully comply with the requirements of PAIA and POPIA, providing a clear and transparent overview of how personal information is protected within our Microsoft environment.

20. Marketing and Communication

20.1. Safety SA Group may periodically contact data subjects to provide information about its events, seminars, products, services, and content that may be of interest, as well as to invite participation in research and projects. In accordance with applicable laws, if consent is required before sending certain types of marketing communications, Safety SA Group will only send such communications after obtaining explicit consent from the data subjects.
